VILLAGE OFFICERS REPORT

Police
Department

Chief Taft reported that Officer Rossi is a certified Evidence Room Technician. Officer Taft will take the training soon.

Chief Taft reported that he has been working on consolidating the printer and copy machine to save money. Chief Taft plans on purchasing a maintenance agreement for the copier next year.

The federal government was going to switch to digital radios in 2013. It could now happen in 2011. Each digital radio will cost between $3,000 and $5,000.

Attorney

Attorney Buick reported that the Sunshine Law requires municipalities to designate individuals to take the Open Meeting Act training (OMA). Attorney Buick commented that he could be one of the designated people. Trustee Fischer and Clerk Edwards will also take the training.

Attorney Buick reported that he received a copy of a letter that ICCI had written to the resident at 320 S. Main St., with regard to a code violation, 74-149, parking on unimproved surface. Attorney Buick was requested by the board to prosecute the individual. Attorney Buick will need pictures of the vehicles, before filing the complaint. The police department will take the pictures and give them to Attorney Buick.
